

BOARD MEMBER PROFILE

HAROLD BALDWIN
RETIRED EDUCATOR

A retired educator and public servant, Mr. Baldwin comes to us with a myriad of wisdom and knowledge. His love for family, students, and community is evident by his ongoing work with humanity. Mr. Baldwin dedicated more than 30 years teaching Social Science high school and middle school, and he served as an Associate Professor at Delta College in Stockton, CA.

He currently fills in as a substitute teacher in Elk Grove Unified School District. When he is not teaching Mr. Baldwin works as a care provider assisting elderly clients with meals, rides, and self-care. In addition, Mr. Baldwin is a member of the clergy and is often called upon to assist in hospice for a private company. Further, he was a former police officer for the San Jose Police Department, a Park Police Officer in New York City, a Fire-arms Instructor, a mentor and confidant. He is also a husband, father and a doting grandfather.
